

UMW MEETS SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8TH AT 10:00 A.M.

Mission giving, which is an emphasis of United Methodist Women, will be a major topic at its Saturday, October. 8th, meeting. All women of the church are invited to attend the 10:00 a.m. get-together in Heaton Hall for an opportunity to have face-to-face community and fellowship.

You may have noticed in previous e-Breezes that a World Thank Offering will be collected in support of women, children and youth around the world. It is a way for us to show gratitude for our blessings by helping others.

Also, Karen Leo, chair of UMW's Missions Committee, will be offering the group's recommendation for disbursements of its earned funds to various charitable organizations this year.

In line with that, there will be a Silent Auction at the Black and White Dinner to raise funds for the missions distribution...and you will find out what some of these fabulous items are at the meeting. Those who are unable to attend the Black & White dinner have the opportunity to bid on the silent auction items. Let Laura Hahn know you are interested.

Of course, no UMW meeting would be complete without something to eat and the hospitality committee always provides a beautifully themed array of delicious snacks. Come and enjoy.
